Meditation for Worship: O men, how long shall my honor be turned into shame? How long will you love vain words and seek after lies? Selah - Psalm 4:2

Surely we too may stop awhile, and meditate upon the deep-seated folly of the wicked, their continuance in evil, and their sure destruction; and we may learn to admire that grace which has made us to differ, and taught us to love the truth, and seek after righteousness." - Charles Spurgeon

Meditation for Worship: Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. – John 17:17

“When speaking of “the word” here, Jesus denotes the doctrine of the Gospel, which the apostles had already heard from the mouth of their master, and which they were afterwards to preach to others. It is true that God alone sanctifies, but whoever departs from the Gospel as the means must become more and more filthy and polluted.” – John Calvin

Musical Prelude

Welcome

Meditation for Worship: He regards the prayer of the destitute and does not despise their prayer. - Psalm 102:17

"Can it stand with the honor of God's glory to stand reading petitions, especially of men who are mere paupers? Men who are raised in honor typically keep a distance from the poor and count it a degree of falling to look downwards. But not so with God, who counts it his glory to regard the inglorious, and being the Most High, looks as low to the lowest, and favors them who are most despised." - Sir R. Baker

Interlude

LEADER: In the day of my trouble I call upon you, for you answer me.

PEOPLE: There is none like you among the gods, O Lord,

Meditation for Worship: Pray for the peace of Jerusalem! May they be secure who love you! - Psalm 122:6

"Our praying for the church gives us a share in all the church's prayers; we have a venture on every ship of prayer that makes a voyage for heaven if our hearts be willing to pray for the church. But let no man flatter himself, they that pray not for the church of God, love not the church of God. If we do not love it, we will not pray for it; and if we do not pray for it, we do not love it, and we lose our share in the prayers of the church." - John Stoughton

When the governments of nations are shaken with revolution, and ancient constitutions are repealed, it is comforting to know that the throne of God is unshaken, his law unaltered." -Charles Spurgeon

John 14:27

Meditation for Worship: The ox knows its owner, and the donkey its master's crib, but Israel does not know, my people do not understand.

- Isaiah 1:3

"Man on his part not only owns but takes care of the ox and the donkey. He rears the, tames them, houses them, and heals them. In return they serve him. Israel's ignorance consisted in not knowing what God had done for them. God had chosen Israel to be his peculiar people. He had been as a father to them and done great things for them. They mistook the chastening of a father for the wounds of an enemy." - James Hastings
